

RISK ASSESSMENT FOR SALLY'S ADVENTURE CLUB written by Sally Bailey 04.01.2015

Parents and carers are fully responsible for the well being and safety of the children they bring to Sally's Adventure Club
There will be a brief health and safety talk at the start of every session.

HAZARD	ASSOCIATED RISK	PEOPLE AT RISK	EXISTING CONTROLS	RESPONSIBILITY
Disorientation	Child may become lost or make contact with unknown adult	Children	Headcount and register taken at start of session	Responsible adult or parent
Uneven surface, wet leaves, sticks, mud	trips, cuts, sprains	All group	First Aider present Parents and children to use appropriate footwear	Responsible adult or parent
Logs, trees, climbing	Risk of injury from falling	Children	First Aider present	Responsible adult or parent
Plants, fungus	Risk of posion Risk of allergic reaction or stings	Children	Teach children not to touch and be aware of which plants are safe First aid kit on site	Responsible adult or parent
Dogs	Biting or knocking children over	Children	Explain to children not to touch, keep alert when dogs are nearby	Responsible adult or parent
Insects, Bee's, wasps	Potential stinging	All group	First Aid kit on site	Responsible adult or parent Adverse weather	exposure to extreme weather for extended periods of time possibly resulting in sunstroke	All group	suitable weather protection to be brought and worn for wet, hot and cold weather (sunscreen,	Responsible adult or parent or adverse reactions to		hats, waterproofs, cold and wet		gloves)

	High Winds		There will be no session in the event of high wind,
			If the wind exceeds 45mph Highgate Wood will be closed
Flora Poisoning	Poisoning or stomach	All Group	Advise never to pick	Responsible adult problems, rashes		eat or taste anything	or parent found in the wood. A strict no picking rule.
			Always wash hands and respect the wood	